English School In London

When choosing your English language course your needs are special, both to you and to our school in Kensington, central London (founded 35 years ago, and clearly recognised by the British Council). We understand the importance of providing you with the personal attention and individual help so necessary in making progress when learning English. And where better to achieve the confidence to communicate and express yourself in English than in the exciting atmosphere of the capital, London!

Our course teams design courses to meet the various needs of our students. They continually monitor feedback to improve the programmes. Whether you need English for your work, studies, or for everyday communication, we have a suitable course where you can join others with similar needs and motivation to yourself.

Our teachers identify your individual learning needs and help you to make rapid progress. They are qualified, skilled, knowledgeable and friendly. They constantly improve their teaching skills to provide you with lively and rewarding classes.

Our Internet learning service, can help you to learn English before your visit to London and to keep learning when you go home.

Our social organisers will help you to relax and enjoy your time in England, while you practise your English in an interesting and exciting environment.

We all look forward to welcoming you.
